

ADVISORY ON APPLYING FOR A POLICE PERMIT

When do I need a Police Permit under the Public Order Act 2009?

1

An Assembly

A gathering or meeting of people, and includes a demonstration by a single person.

Or

A Procession

A march, parade or other procession (whether in a vehicle or on foot) involving an individual or group of people gathered and moving along a common route or routes.

2

For any of the following purposes

Demonstrate support for or opposition to the views or actions of any person, group of persons or any government,

Or

Publicise a cause or campaign,

Or

Mark or commemorate any event.

3

Held in a public place and/or open to members of the public

SINGAPORE
POLICE FORCE
SAFEGUARDING EVERY DAY

ADVISORY ON APPLYING FOR A POLICE PERMIT

What will you be required to do?

Timeline

You will have to apply for a Police Permit (PP)

no less than 14 working days from date of event

When there is a road closure,

no less than 30 days from date of event

Information Required

- Date, time and location of your event
- Landowner or Venue provider's approval
- Full particulars and contact details of the organiser and a secondary point of contact
- A brief description of the purpose of your event
- The programme/itinerary
- Number of persons participating (at any point in time)
- Crowd control measures and/or road closures (if any)
- If any, particulars of the speaker and the synopsis of the talk

SINGAPORE
POLICE FORCE
SAFEGUARDING EVERY DAY

ADVISORY ON APPLYING FOR A POLICE PERMIT

Examples of event that require Police Permit

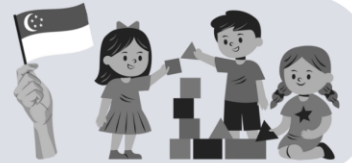

Cause-Based Events

- Charities
- Fundraising
- Walk/Run for a cause
- Raising Awareness Campaigns

Commemorative Events

- Anniversaries
- Racial Harmony
- National Day Celebration or Dinner
- Religious Events e.g. Birthdays of Deities

Festive Events

Examples of events that do not require a Police permit: Renovations, Non-commemorative dinners, Non-commemorative block parties, RC gatherings/meetings

Ready to apply?

<https://go.gov.sg/applypolicepermit>

Scan here to apply for Police Permits

SINGAPORE
POLICE FORCE
SAFEGUARDING EVERY DAY